

JES 2.0 statistical analysis: cells are the independent unit

Per-second samples are used to calculate errors, never as independent statistical replicates.

Primary interpretation: paired effect sizes and confidence intervals; p-values are secondary at n = 6 cells.